ABOUT FSC IF

In 2019, the Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) established the FSC Indigenous Foundation (FSC- IF) as the operational office of the Permanent Indigenous Peoples Committee (PIPC). The FSC IF is a private interest foundation in accordance with Law No. 25 of June 12, 1995, of the Republic of Panama.

The mission of FSC IF is to enable an enabling environment to guarantee the rights of Indigenous Peoples and promote sustainable forest-based solutions within 300 million hectares of indigenous forests on the planet. The vision is that Indigenous Peoples' global values, rights, livelihoods, ecosystem services, natural capital and communities are incorporated into forest governance, climate change governance and market systems.

FSC IF Mission:

The organization works to elevate Indigenous Peoples in their contribution to the protection of Mother Earth and recognize them as providers of solutions to global challenges.

FSC IF Vision:

The organization envisions a future where Indigenous-based solutions and Indigenous-led actions generated within one quarter of the Planet safeguard everyone's future and Mother Earth.

FSC IF GOVERNING PRINCIPLES

- Respect and Recognition: The organization's actions respect and recognize the cultural, spiritual, traditional, identity, and landscape diversities and customary rights for self-determined development of indigenous peoples and communities
- Trust: The organization drives their actions and partnerships by commitment to trust-building and adopting long-term reciprocal, transparent, accountable, and shared values guided by ancestors and traditions
- Diversity and Inclusion: The organization promotes diversity and inclusion in all interactions and across all aspects of the organization. They use Indigenous cosmovision and practices to prevent any type of racism, discrimination, violence, or oppression
- Equity: The organization promotes and value actions and efforts to produce more equitable, diverse, and inclusive results and collective benefit-sharing with equal balance and respect to cultural, gender, ecological, and traditional diversities

FSC-IF are committed to work driven by their mission of being guided by and supporting Indigenous Peoples' values of:

- Respect for Mother Earth - Managing lands, water, and ecosystems with great respect to nature and care by recognizing that one only borrows them from future generations
- Respect for ancestral knowledge - Keeping the promises made to their ancestors to manage nature and the resources provided by the Mother Earth in a sustainable and respectful way

MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES

The Managing Director assumes the overall responsibility for developing, overseeing, and executing the Foundation's vision as outlined in its Global Strategy 2023-2027.

The Managing Director will lead the executive decision-making for the organization, in coordination with the FSC IF Council Chairperson and members. The Managing Director is supported directly by a Manager of Indigenous Engagement. Driven by and accountable to the FSC IF Indigenous mission, vision, principles, values, and governance, the Managing Director will lead and manage a diverse, global, qualified, and experienced team to ensure FSC IF best fulfills its mission, goals, objectives, and deliverables as approved by the Council as well as agreed with its founding partner, the Forest Stewardship Council, and Indigenous partners worldwide. The Managing Director leads a senior management team in FSC-IF, consisting of the Director of Finance & Administration and the future Director of Development & Partnerships and the future Director of Technical Operations. The Managing Director is accountable for planning, developing, deploying, and monitoring the operational, financial, and human resources of the organization within a strong Indigenous framework of governance and risk management. Any risks identified should be communicated to and addressed with the FSC IF Council as soon as possible.

The Managing Director provides:

- 1) strategic and political guidance and clear goals for the technical work of the organization (standard-setting and updates, assessing programs and projects, ongoing oversight, and enforcement), and
- 2) interaction and engagement with external stakeholders, providing an Indigenous vision and setting a roadmap for responsible growth of the FSC IF with clear plans, key performance indicators, milestones, and revenue models to consolidate and scale-up Indigenous-led actions by, for, and with Indigenous Peoples worldwide.

Driven by the FSC IF Global Strategy 2023-2027, the Managing Director will lead, in co-ordination with the FSC IF Council, and working closely with the Director of Finance &

Administration, the future Director of Development & Partnerships and the future Director of Technical Operations, a new phase of consolidation and growth of the organization as a global Indigenous-led entity by expanding strategic partnerships with funding partners, the private sector, Civil Society Organizations (CSOs), the United Nations organizations, and other stakeholders.

- Lead, facilitate, build, and maintain long-term collaboration and dialogues with representatives of Indigenous Peoples' Organizations at global, regional, national, subnational, and community levels ensuring accountability, transparency, and Indigenous values, principles, vision, knowledge, and traditions
- Work in close collaboration with FSC International and relevant FSC regional and national offices, as the Founder and a partner organization, for the achievement of FSC IF's strategic objectives
- In close collaboration and coordination with the FSC IF Council Chairperson and members, as well as FSC IF senior staff, oversee the FSC IF communications and outreach to the media and other organizations to promote the FSC IF brand and the Indigenous business-model of FSC IF as a global and innovative Indigenous-led entity

Oversee Technical Work

- Give strategic and political guidance to FSC IF and Program Directors and ensure that the FSC IF curates and continually improves and strengthens Indigenous values, principles, knowledge, vision, and management into programs and projects, including through targeted multistakeholder work programs as spelled out in the FSC IF Global Strategy 2023-2027
- Ensure collaborative, Indigenous goal-oriented and seamless support and management of the FSC IF multi-stakeholder partners, FSC IF governing bodies, and FSC IF Indigenous partners

Effective Governance

- In close collaboration with the Council Chairperson, provide thoughtful, strategic, and visionary leadership for the FSC IF Council
- Shape the Council's agenda to cover the FSC IF's strategic and political goals and relevant operating issues

- Assist the FSC IF Council Chairperson to facilitate effective and efficient Council decision making based on best governance and reporting practices, with a focus on Indigenous governance models
- Oversee, monitor, follow-up, and report on Council decisions and actions
- In close collaboration with the Director of Finance and Administration, identify potential risks and oversee the development of mitigation plans for FSC IF operations and investments
- Undergo an annual performance review assessed against the goals spelled out in the FSC IF's Global Strategy 2023-2027 to be carried out by the FSC IF Council
- Assist the Chairperson to engage and manage the Council's relationships with other governing bodies and committees
- Manage relationships with other Indigenous bodies and collaborate with other organizations and strategic partners to develop a shared narrative
